RE: Biennial Regulatory Review of Regulations Administered by the Wireline Competition Bureau, WC Docket No. 02-313.

Dear Ms. Dortch:

The National Organization for Women et al. (NOW et al.), commenters in the above-captioned proceeding, respectfully submit this letter for the record.

In their Comments, filed April 19, 2004, NOW et al. supported the retention of Form 395 and employment discrimination complaint reporting pursuant to section 1.185. It appears from a review of all comments and reply comments, that no party in this proceeding is advocating that the continued monitoring of common carrier employment practices pursuant to section 1.185 is no longer in the public interest

Finally, two additional organizations have joined the NOW et al. group of parties and support the NOW et al. Comments. These organizations are the National Bar Association (NBA) and the National Association for Multi-ethnicity in Communications (NAMIC). Please associate the NBA and NAMIC with the original 34 organizations comprising NOW et al. in this docket.

If there are any questions regarding this filing, please do not hesitate to contact Karen Henein at (202) 662-9545.

Respectfully Submitted,
